Polly welcomes these early arrivals, brings them to our prayer circle, escorts them to their classes, picks them up from their classes, takes them for donuts and a visit with their parents and then takes them to the beginning of the 11:00 worship so that they might participate in the worship with the congregation and the time with children. As a special friend to children of any age, Polly lends a hand in the area of greatest need during the 9:30 Sunday School hour. Polly also teaches our 11:00 Children's Chapel.
